

Jewish Holidays, Week 1: Jewish Calendar

“I know Weinstein's parents were upset, but it sounded so made up. I mean, Yom Kippur?” - Principal Skinner, The Simpsons

Introduction

Today I'll be covering the origin and development of the Jewish calendar.

Next week, we're scheduled to look at the most commonly occurring Jewish holiday: the Sabbath.

The following week, I plan to cover the high holidays (Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur).

The last week I'd like to go over the Passover.

In the beginning

Genesis 1:1

Today's date is June 1, 2008 (for us) and 27 Iyar, 5768 (for a Jew).

The Jewish calendar begins approximately one year prior to _____.

Genesis 1:1-5. God defined a day as an _____ and a _____.

Our first observation is that the Bible dictates the Jewish calendar.

Our second observation is that a day is defined as _____ to _____.

New Moon

Genesis 7:11. The Hebrew word for month is chodesh (KHO-desh) and it means, “_____.”

The Gregorian calendar

Does every year have that many?

Why not?

How many months do we have?

Every year?

How many days in each month?

Do the number of days in each month change?

Months in the Bible

Several times in the Bible (Genesis 8; 1 Chronicles 27) months are identified by number _____.

There are verses commanding certain things at the beginning of a month (Numbers 10:10; 28:11).

The Jewish calendar

The Jews use a _____ calendar (phase of the moon and solar positions are important).

Complexities of the Jewish calendar

The number of days in a 12 month lunar calendar is _____ days shorter than in a solar calendar. This would cause major problems, since many of the holidays are seasonally specific. To compensate, the Jews decided on a _____ to make up the difference.

An easy way to remember what year is a Jewish leap year is to use the following picture:

JewFAQ.org: If you are musically inclined, you may remember this pattern of leap years by reference to the major scale: for each whole step there are two regular years and a leap year; for each half-step there is one regular year and a leap year.

Application

1. God is a god of _____
2. God commands that we pay _____ to things
3. We should strive to have a _____ knowledge of Biblical history, culture and life in the Bible if we are to ever interpret and apply Scripture to our lives properly
4. We should be aware of the _____ on our Jewish friends

Jewish Holidays, Week 2: Sabbath

Anybody can observe the Sabbath, but making it holy surely takes the rest of the week. – Alice Walker

1. Etymology (Sabbath/Shabbat)

Our word 'Sabbath' comes from the Hebrew word Shabbath (shaw-BATH). When used as a noun, it simply refers to the day called Sabbath. When used as a verb, it means to cease, desist, rest, or put an end to (typically translated '_____'), it more literally means, 'to _____').

The Sabbath is not meant for _____. It is meant as _____ abstaining from work in order to do good, to enjoy life, and to identify with the seven-day-a-week rhythm of life.

Examine the balance in your life between working and not working.

2. Old Testament Examples

- a. God stopped: Genesis 1 & 2

- b. Sabbath balance: Leviticus 23

- c. Sabbath preparations: Exodus 16:22-30

- d. Violations of the Sabbath: Numbers 15:32-36; Nehemiah 13:15-22

- e. God 'refreshed': Exodus 31:16-17 – literally, 'taking a breath'

3. New Testament Examples

Things to do during the Shabbat:

Recitation of kiddush, or "sanctification," over a cup of wine before the first meal

Meals begin with a blessing over two loaves of bread. It is customary to serve meat or fish, for Friday night dinner and Shabbat lunch. The third meal, eaten late Saturday afternoon, is generally a light meal.

Recitation of Havdalah, or "separation," at the conclusion on Saturday night (over a cup of wine, and with the use of fragrant spices and a candle)

Observant Orthodox and Conservative Jews do not perform the ____ categories of activity (39 melachot) listed in Talmud Tractate Shabbat 7:2: sowing, ploughing, reaping, binding sheaves, threshing, winnowing, selecting, grinding, sifting, kneading, baking, shearing wool, washing wool, beating wool, dyeing wool, spinning, weaving, making two loops, weaving two threads, separating two threads, tying, untying, sewing stitches, tearing, trapping, slaughtering, flaying, tanning, scraping hide, marking hides, cutting hide to shape, writing two or more letters, erasing two or more letters, building, demolishing, extinguishing a fire, kindling a fire, applying the finishing touch, and transferring between domains

5. Are Christians required to keep the Sabbath today? (by David Guzik)

_____: ____ - _____. The Sabbath observed by Israel was a shadow of things to come, but the substance is of Christ. However, though we are free from the legal obligation of the Sabbath, we dare not ignore the importance of a day of rest as God has built us so that we _____ one.

What about Saturday as opposed to Sunday? Sunday is the day Jesus rose from the dead (Mark 16:9), and first met with His disciples (John 20:19), and a day when Christians gathered for _____ (Acts 20:7).

Jewish Holidays, Week 3: High Holidays

The high holidays (also known as the 'Days of Awe') cover a _____ day period (Ten Days of Repentance) from Rosh Hashanah (literally, head of the year, the Jewish New Year) to Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement). The timeline below shows some of the Jewish holidays this Gregorian calendar year.

The Jews believe that God makes a decision about each individual's life on Rosh Hashanah but that the decision is not _____ until Yom Kippur. Therefore, the ten days from Rosh Hashanah to Yom Kippur are a crucial period when your fate hangs in the balance and you have a chance to mend your ways to alter the judgment in your favor (through _____, prayers, charity, etc.). During these Ten Days of Repentance, the Jews engage in introspection and repentance.

Biblical Basis: Leviticus 23:23-32

Calendar Confusion

The Jewish year has _____ distinct starting points. The first month of the year per Exodus 12:2 is Nisan (Mar/Apr). The first of Tishrei (the seventh month of the year) is the beginning of the civil year (when the year in the calendar advances by one—Sep/Oct). The new year for counting animal tithes is Elul (the sixth month of the year—Aug/Sep). The new year for agricultural tithes is the 15th of Shevat (the eleventh month of the year—Jan/Feb).

Rosh Hashanah

Shofar Sounds

Per Leviticus 23:24, Rosh Hashanah includes blowing a _____ (shofar). The shofar is meant to arouse the Jews from spiritual slumber and to represent the sobbing Jewish heart at their sins.

Tashlich Thanks

The Tashlich prayer is said on the first afternoon of Rosh Hashanah by a pool of _____. These prayers are symbolic of the casting away of mistakes. This is the text of the prayer [from Aish.com]:

Who is like You, God, who removes iniquity and overlooks transgression of the remainder of His inheritance. He doesn't remain angry forever because He desires kindness. He will return and He will be merciful to us, and He will conquer our iniquities, and He will cast them into the depths of the seas. Give truth to Jacob, kindness to Abraham like that you swore to our ancestors from long ago. From the straits I called upon God, God answered me with expansiveness. God is with me, I will not be afraid, what can man do to me? God is with me to help me, and I will see my foes (annihilated). It is better to take refuge in God than to trust in man. It is better to take refuge in God, that to rely on nobles.

Dietary Directions

A popular food-related custom is apples and bread dipped in honey to symbolize a _____ new year.

Present Practices

Aish.com: It is customary to greet others with the words: “For a good year—You should be written and sealed in the good (Book of Life).”

_____ prayer services occur at the synagogue on Yom Kippur, starting with Kol Nidre (the evening service where all vows are annulled between oneself and God).

Historical Highlights

In Bible times, the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) conducted a sacrificial ceremony on Yom Kippur. He confessed his sins, the sins of the priests and the sins of the people, speaking the name of God as he did. Then he went into the Holy of Holies and sacrificed and offered incense.

Religious Restraints

It might be easy to think that Yom Kippur is a _____ holiday since there are several things you do not do, but to an observant Jew, it is a time of _____ due to the reconciliation with God and others.
