Part 4: Doctrine of Christ & Holy Spirit
Chapter 26: The Person of Christ

How is Jesus fully God and fully man, yet one person?

Introduction & Review
Note: The primary textbook for the structure of this series is Wayne Grudem’s Systematic Theology. The primary text for the substance of this series is the Bible.

Grudem: What is systematic theology? . . . Systematic theology is any study that answers the question, “What does the _______ Bible teach us today?” about any given topic.

Explanation and Scriptural Basis
A. Grudem: The _____________ of Christ

3. Grudem: Sin_______ness. Romans 8:3; 2 Corinthians 5:21; Hebrews 4:15

5. Grudem: Why was Jesus’ full humanity necessary?

6. Grudem: Jesus will be a man __________

B. Grudem: The _________ of Christ
1. Grudem: Direct scriptural claims. Matthew 17:5; Hebrews 1:8

3. Grudem: Did Jesus give up some of his divine attributes while on earth? Grudem: Kenosis Theory

4. Grudem: Conclusion: Christ is _______ divine. Colossians 1:19; 2:9; Matthew 1:23
6. Why was Jesus’ deity necessary?

C. Grudem: The ___________: Deity and humanity in the one person of Christ

1. Grudem: Three inadequate views of the person of Christ
   a. Grudem: Apollinarianism: The one person of Christ had a human body but _____ a human mind or spirit, and that the mind and spirit of Christ were from the divine nature of the Son of God

   b. Grudem: Nestorianism: Nestorianism is the doctrine that there were two __________ persons in Christ, a human person and a divine person

   c. Grudem: Monophysitism (Eutychianism): The view that Christ had ____ nature only in which both were somewhat modified to form one new nature

2. Grudem: The solution to the controversy:
The Chalcedonian Definition of A.D. 451 [abbreviated]: We, then, following the holy Fathers, all with one consent, teach men to confess one and the same Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, the same perfect in Godhead and also perfect in manhood; truly God and truly man, of a reasonable [rational] soul and body; consubstantial [coessential] with the Father according to the Godhead, and consubstantial with us according to the Manhood; in all things like unto us, without sin; begotten before all ages of the Father according to the Godhead, and in these latter days, for us and for our salvation, born of the Virgin Mary, the Mother of God, according to the Manhood; one and the same Christ, Son, Lord, Only-begotten, to be acknowledged in two natures, inconfusedly, unchangeably, indivisibly, inseparably; the distinction of natures being by no means taken away by the union, but rather the property of each nature being preserved, and concurring in one Person and one Subsistence, not parted or divided into two persons, but one and the same Son, and only begotten, God, the Word, the Lord Jesus Christ . . .

3. Grudem: Combining specific biblical texts on Christ’s deity and humanity Remaining what he _____, he became what he was ____

Scripture Memory Passage: John 1:14
And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.

Chapter 27: The Atonement

Was it necessary for Christ to die? Did Christ's entire earthly life earn any saving benefits for us? The cause and nature of the atonement.

Scripture Memory Passage Review: John 1:14

Explanation and Scriptural Basis
Grudem: The work Christ did in his life and death to earn our ____________ (at-____-ment)

A. Grudem: The cause of the atonement

B. Grudem: The necessity of the atonement

C. Grudem: The nature of the atonement
1. Grudem: Christ’s obedience for us (sometimes called his “__________ obedience”) Grudem: Christ had to live a life of perfect obedience to God in order to earn righteousness for us. Philippians 3:9; 1 Corinthians 1:30; Romans 5:19; Matthew 3:15

2. Grudem: Christ’s sufferings for us (sometimes called his “__________ obedience”) Grudem: Christ also took on himself the sufferings necessary to pay the penalty for our sins.
c. Grudem: Further understanding of the death of Christ. . . . There is no more penalty for sin left for us to pay. The penalty has entirely been paid by Christ, and we should have no remaining fear of condemnation or punishment. . . . “Penal substitution.” Christ’s death was “penal” in that he bore a penalty when he died. His death was also a “substitution” in that he was a substitute for us when he died. . . . Vicarious atonement. A “vicar” is someone who stands in the place of another or who represents another. Christ’s death was therefore “vicarious” because he stood in our place.

d. Grudem: New Testament terms describing different aspects of the atonement

D. Grudem: The extent of the atonement

Grudem: Questions for Personal Application (abbreviated)

1. If Christ bore all the guilt for our sins, all the wrath of God against sin, and all the penalty of the death that we deserved, then will God ever turn his wrath against you as a believer (Romans 8:31–39)? If not, then why do we as Christians experience difficulties and sufferings in this life (Romans 8:28; Hebrews 12:3–11)?

2. Do you think it was fair for Christ to be your substitute and to pay your penalty? When you think about him acting as your substitute and dying for you, what attitude and emotion is called forth in your heart?

Scripture Memory Passage: Romans 3:23-26

23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, 24 being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, 25 whom God set forth as a propitiation by His blood, through faith, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance God had passed over the sins that were previously committed, 26 to demonstrate at the present time His righteousness, that He might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.
